

ENGINE CONTROL PANEL

Electronic Panel

STANDARD FEATURES

- The electronic engine control panel comes standard with:
 - Engine preheat indicator light.
 - Alternator fault indicator light.
 - Engine Fault indicator light.
 - Digital Up & Down switch to control speed.
 - Four position Key switch with Starter Lock.

Also the Panel comes standard with a Deutz Electronic Display, featuring the following:

- High graphical resolution 160 x 128 pixel
 - Temperature operating range (-25 deg.C to + 75 deg. C)
 - Contrast control / variable backlighting / internal sounder.
 - Multiple accessed screens via illuminated soft-keys.
 - A single two-wire datalink connection is all that is required for Communication with the host computer, CAN controller or simply between other CANtrak units.
 - The instrument is RS 422, RS 485 and CAN datalink compatible.
 - Polarity reverse protected & resistance to over Voltage.
 - IP - 67 Protection level.
-
- Panel harnesses and mounting bracket kits are available, and have been designed specifically for each Deutz engine model and for each power unit configuration.
 - Backed by Deutz service and warranty.